

Job Opening - BCBA

Chartwell Center is looking to hire a Board Certified Behavior Analyst (BCBA)! We are a non-profit organization that has been serving individuals on the autism spectrum, ages 3 through adulthood, for the last 18 years. Parent driven and community supported, we have a newly renovated facility in the heart of New Orleans!

Our new BCBA would be responsible for ABA programming related to skill building and behavior reduction for the individuals we serve. The BCBA would work directly with our Clinical Director and be responsible for program development, functional assessment, behavior plan development, parent training, and data analysis. In addition, the BCBA would provide supervision and training to our registered behavior technicians who work directly with our clients.

The BCBA would also be responsible for insurance assessments and writing authorization requests for insurance coverage for the individuals attending our Center. Those interested in the position should have a minimum of a master's degree in Applied Behavior Analysis or a related field. The candidate should be licensed as a behavior analyst in Louisiana (or be license eligible). They should also be able to pass a state background check.

Candidates with research experience are highly encouraged to apply. Additionally, candidates with experience in billing insurance companies for services are also preferred, but not required. Chartwell serves populations with both Medicaid and commercial insurances.

Salary depends on experience and health insurance is offered to this full-time salaried position. Generous time off and dedicated time for continuing education opportunities are also offered.

Chartwell's culture is one of hard work, fun, and results for the families we serve. We value a good fit for this position as a collaborative attitude and persistent curiosity for the best individualized interventions yield the right results.

Interested candidates can find more information about Chartwell Center at <http://chartwellcenter.org/careers/>. Those wishing to apply for the BCBA position should send their resume or curriculum vitae to Chartwell@ChartwellCenter.org.
